Generations of the Shoah International Newsletter
September, 2016

Dear Members and Friends,

Don't forget to register for the joint GSI, World Federation of Jewish Child Survivors of the Holocaust and Descendants and Kindertransport Association conference in Los Angeles, CA, November 4 – 7, 2016.

Our Conference will once again consist of workshops specifically focused on issues pertaining to each attending generation, as well as those that will be open to all, providing the opportunity to dialogue: to share, to hear, and to tell one another those things we rarely get the chance to address elsewhere.

In addition there will be panels that will focus on issues common to all the generations, and offer the chance to learn and be inspired through topics such as: Education Now and in the Future, Taking a Journey into Our Family History: Writing Alone or with a Partner, Different Approaches and Ways to Tell Our Parents' and Our Own Stories, as well as others like Yiddish: A Language, Culture, and Identity, to name one.

Our keynote and plenary speakers include: Child Survivor Dr. Robert Krell, speaker, author, Professor Emeritus of Psychiatry, Vancouver; Dr. Stephen Smith, Executive Director USC Shoah Foundation and Inaugural UNESCO Chair on Genocide Education; Dr. Michael Berenbaum, Historian, Author, Holocaust Scholar, Director of Sigi Ziering Institute; E. Randol Schoenberg, past president of the Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust, attorney responsible for recovery of looted art, most notably depicted in the film Woman in Gold about the Klimt painting; Rabbi David Wolpe, Sr. Rabbi, Sinai Temple, Los Angeles, renowned speaker and author.

And of course there will be time to "shmooze", see films, meet old friends and make new ones. As always, we will also "Dance"!!! For more information: www.holocaustchild.org or holocaustchilda2016@gmail.com. You can register here online: www.genshoah.org/pdfs/gsi_2016_registration_packet.pdf

We look forward to seeing you in Los Angeles!!

FYI... From June 27-July 1, 2016, fourteen New Jersey educators, primarily from public middle and high schools, participated in an intensive professional development course on the history of the Holocaust at Rutgers University. This free mini-course offered through the Master Teacher Institute in Holocaust Education (MTI) provides a rare opportunity for teachers to study Holocaust history in an intensive and comprehensive way during their summer break. The course includes university style lectures, film discussions, resource material and recorded testimonies, and pedagogical sessions on classroom application. Participants receive numerous benefits from the MTI program, including professional development hours, help in curriculum development from experts in Holocaust pedagogy, access to a supportive network of teachers, and connection to the Shoah Visual History Archive. For more information about the program, visit BildnerCenter.Rutgers.edu, email jmarcou@rutgers.edu, or call 848-932-4165.

FYI...Online support group for Children of Holocaust survivors with Jewish Family Services of Greenwich, CT: Participants will discuss how the Holocaust continues to impact their lives and explore their family's influence on their own behaviors and relationships. Resilience and how the legacy of being a child of a survivor can be a burden or a gift will also be discussed.

Clinical psychologist Dr. Judith Zackson, a child of Holocaust survivors, will run the group, which will meet for 6 weeks on Tuesdays at 2:00 pm beginning September 13th. For more information please contact Lisa Smith, LCSW, JFS Executive Director at 203-622-1881 or llsmith@jfsgreenwich.org by September 9th. Space is limited to 8 participants. <http://jfsgreenwich.org/services/support-groups/children-of-holocaust-survivors-support-group/>

FYI...Group forming on the effects of the Holocaust on children and grandchildren of survivors: This group would give individuals the chance to talk openly about their experiences in a comfortable, group setting. It will take place every Wednesday at 8 PM, at Rohr Jewish center 541 Myrtle Ave, Brooklyn, NY 11205. For questions, email ovitz@hotmail.com

FYI... I am doing Holocaust research on my family, Family Strauss. A few of our family members were hidden together with other Jewish children in a convent in Chimay, Belgium during WWII. One of those children who survived is Joseph Szlezinger who moved to England after the war. Although he has appeared in some news articles, I am having difficulty finding him. If anyone knows him or has any contact details for Mr Szlezinger, I would be delighted to be put in contact with him. Noam Corb: +972503340203, noamcorb@gmail.com
