

Generations of the Shoah International Newsletter
November, 2015

Dear Members and Friends,

This month we commemorate the 77th anniversary of Kristallnacht, the November Pogrom. Many regional commemorations are listed in the Upcoming Events section.

We have a good sampling of news articles and videos from around the world. There you can read dozens of comments made in response to Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu's statement on the Shoah as well as a wide variety of other stories.

Information about the online availability of some historical documents from the International Tracing Service (ITS) is in the Announcement section below.

Congratulations to Beate and Serge Klarsfeld who were appointed UNESCO Honorary Ambassadors and Special Envoys for Education about the History of the Holocaust and for the Prevention of Genocide. <http://en.unesco.org/news/unesco-honours-beate-and-serge-klarsfeld-their-work-preserve-history-and-teaching-holocaust>

Congratulations on the grand opening of the new Holocaust Center in Pittsburgh, PA. For more, here is their new web address: www.HCPgh.org

Generations of the Shoah International (GSI)

Membership in our interactive leadership listserv is open to leaders / representatives of landsmanschaft and other Holocaust-related groups. If your local survivor, second generation or third generation group has not yet delegated a representative to join the GSI interactive online discussion / listserv group, please join us now. We already have dozens of members throughout the US and from other countries. This global interactive listserv is the fastest way to reach the survivor community: genshoah@gmail.com.

For event submissions: http://www.genshoah.org/contact_gsi.html. Please fill out the information requested in the text areas and submit it to us at genshoah@gmail.com. You must send us your information no later than the 23rd of the month if you wish for it to appear in the upcoming month's issue.

To search the newsletter by geographic area: search by country for programs outside the USA or use the city and / or state abbreviations for those in the USA.

Visit our GSI website at www.genshoah.org for updated information on new books, films, helpful links to Holocaust-related organizations and institutions, etc. Survivors, their children and grandchildren are welcome to post contact information for their local groups on our website.

GSI has an “open” Facebook Group that anyone can join and invite others to join. Feel free to introduce yourself to your brothers and sisters in the survivor community and communicate directly with them without having to be cleared by a third party. Use the group to find old friends and relatives. Join us and meet new friends. Our page is visible to Facebook members at <http://tinyurl.com/clhxsf>. Joining Facebook is free and easy: www.facebook.com.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

From the International Tracing Service

You can now view three specially chosen collections from the archives of the International Tracing Service (ITS) online. This is only a small part of the collection that since 2013 has been inscribed on the UNESCO “Memory of the World” Register. More collections will follow in the next few years. For more you can click here to open the ITS newsletter in your internet browser.

FYI... Caring for Holocaust Survivors with Sensitivity at End of Life: A Guidebook for Clinicians” is available online free at http://hospicenyc.org/wp-content/uploads/2013/04/2013-Holocaust-Booklet_FNL_1.pdf or from this link. Developed with funding from MJHS (Metropolitan Jewish Health System) Foundation and Targum Shlishi, the booklet is largely based on a keynote lecture by Irit Felsen, Ph.D. (2nd generation), which was part of an MJHS-sponsored educational program for clinicians and caregivers entitled “Their Last Days: Aging Holocaust Survivors Facing the End of Life,” delivered at the Museum of Jewish Heritage in New York City. The news release issued at the time of this 2011 event can be found at <https://www.mjhs.org/files/2010/11/Hospice-5-3-11-MJHS-Leads-Forum-about-Holocaust-Survivor-E.pdf> or by clicking here.

The guidebook is intended to be an educational tool and resource for professional and paraprofessional caregivers serving Holocaust Survivors and their children, the Second Generation, with the goals of educating clinicians about how post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) manifests itself at the end of life in Holocaust Survivors, and raising self-awareness of healthcare providers to their own comfort levels and to their own reactions when working with Holocaust Survivors. It can also be a valuable resource for Holocaust Survivor families facing these issues.

FYI... Jewish Family Services of Greenwich, CT is one of the first social services agencies in the U.S. to widen its therapeutic reach via its pioneering video Online Support Group Project (OSGP). The online video conversations are run by experienced, licensed social workers and offer the same supportive group dynamic as in-person gatherings. We are currently offering a general “Caring for the Caregiver” weekly online video conversation.

Children of Holocaust survivors are welcome to join this conversation. Members will be able connect with others to reduce isolation and create a caring community from their own home. The OSGP provides vital emotional support without sacrificing much-needed energy and travel time. Groups are available to those of any religious background and sliding scale fees are also available. The services are being provided using secure, state-of-the-art live video conferencing technology; anyone with a computer and Internet access can join an online video conversation.

For more information please contact Naomi at nkohl@jfsgreenwich.org or check out our website or send this link to someone to register.

FYI...Yad Vashem has created a free online course to be presented on two main MOOC (Massive Open Online Course) platforms. The course, The Holocaust: An Introduction – Part 1, will be launched on November 2, 2015 on the UK-based FutureLearn platform and, in January 2016, on the US-based Coursera platform. It provides an overview of the Holocaust while delving into central subjects of Holocaust research, such as: From "traditional" hatred to Nazi ideology; from democracy to totalitarianism; Nazi Germany and the Jews; ostracism and separation; the development of the "Final Solution"; Jewish and non-Jewish responses to the Holocaust; and the final months of the war and its repercussions. The archival material that accompanies the course is taken from Yad Vashem's Archives. This provides participants with access to Yad Vashem's unparalleled resources, as well as a gateway to the latest knowledge and research on the Holocaust. Registration is still open – 20,000 individuals have already signed up.

FYI...A Position Paper on the Second Generation from Prof. Dr. Felix Kolmer, Chairman and Dr. Jost Rebutisch, Managing Director
As a lobbyist for all survivors of Nazi persecution, The Federal Association Information and Advice for Survivors of Nazi Persecution also acts in the interest of the succeeding generations. In 2009 and 2011 the Federal Association held two meetings for professional exchange on this subject in Cologne. These led to this year's conference "Second Generation" in Berlin, where participants urged the Federal Association to connect the different groups, gather their interests and set the agenda for a joint course of action. We will take on this challenge and do our utmost to ensure that the "Second Generation" receives adequate recognition and support. Please find the Federal Association's position paper on the "Second Generation" here.

FYI... The College of Saint Elizabeth is sponsoring a Holocaust Study Mission to Germany and Poland from May 14 - 24, 2016 at a tour price of $3500, which includes airfare from/to JFK, most meals, all ground transportation, educator/guides and admission to sites. Travel with a Holocaust Survivor to Berlin, Krakow, Warsaw, Lublin, Auschwitz-Birkenau, Majdanek, and Treblinka. For more information and reservations: www.cse.edu/hsm.
