Dear Members and Friends,

Registrations have been coming in for the joint GSI / World Federation of Jewish Child Survivors of the Holocaust and Descendants (WFJCSHD) conference. Space for this conference is limited, so make sure you register soon. Please see the details below in the Upcoming Conferences section or click here for more information: www.holocaustchild.org/

Our Facebook book / film discussion guests this summer are Florence Grende (www.genshoah.org/guest-bio-2017/Florence_Grende.html) in July and Judy Menczel (www.genshoah.org/guest-bio-2017/Judy_Menczel.html) in August. We hope you will join us as we discuss Florence’s book The Butcher's Daughter: A Memoir. She has already begun her discussion and has joined us from Mexico. Later this summer Judy will be joining us from Australia as we will chat with her about Pockets of Hope, the Movie.

Our thanks to Nachman Kataczinsky for being our June guest and sharing his experiences researching and writing his books.

Please see the FYI section (international articles) below for articles on medical research involving survivors. We will continue to follow this issue as the research evolves.

Generations of the Shoah International (GSI)

Membership in our interactive leadership listserv is open to leaders / representatives of landsmanschaften and other Holocaust-related groups. If your local survivor, second generation or third generation group has not yet delegated a representative to join the GSI interactive online discussion / listserv group, please join us now. We already have dozens of members throughout the USA and from other countries. This global interactive listserv is the fastest way to reach the survivor community: genshoah@gmail.com.

For event submissions: www.genshoah.org/contact_gsi.html. Please fill out the information requested in the text areas and submit it to us at genshoah@gmail.com. You must send us your information no later than the 23rd of the month if you wish for it to appear in the upcoming month’s issue.
To search the newsletter by geographic area: Search by country for programs outside the USA or use the city and / or state abbreviations for those areas in the USA.

All times listed below are local unless otherwise stated.

Visit our GSI website at www.genshoah.org for updated information on new books, films, helpful links to Holocaust-related organizations and institutions, etc. Survivors, their children and grandchildren are welcome to post contact information for their local groups on our website.

GSI has an “open” Facebook Group that anyone can join and invite others to join. Feel free to introduce yourself to your brothers and sisters in the survivor community and communicate directly with them without having to be cleared by a third party. Use the group to find old friends and relatives. Join us and meet new friends. Our page is visible to Facebook members at www.facebook.com/groups/genshoah/. Joining Facebook is free and easy: www.facebook.com.

FYI... From the International Tracing Service (ITS) 2016 was a year of defining priorities and setting out towards newly defined goals for the International Tracing Service (ITS). Our main focus was on granting numerous users around the world easier access to information and the ITS documents, which will continue in the years ahead. A summary of achievements is in the annual report, [Link to the 2016 Annual Report]. We have a new format and different content: to give you an overview of our work at a glance, we’ve concentrated on the essentials. This includes facts and figures, but also the equally important stories of the men and women we serve on a daily basis.

The annual report is only one way of staying informed about the ITS. You can also sign up for our newsletter and follow us on Facebook and Twitter
