Dear Members and Friends,

Congratulations to GSI Coordinating Council member Sarah Weiss, Executive Director of the Holocaust & Humanity Center in Cincinnati, Ohio, on the new Holocaust museum: Horror and History. Cincinnati’s new Holocaust museum has authentic touch.

Children of Holocaust survivors are encouraged to participate in this survey, a joint initiative between GSI and AJR (The Association of Jewish Refugees in the UK). We appreciate this invitation from the AJR:

At the end of April 2019 over one-third of the overall membership of The AJR identified as second generation Holocaust survivors or refugees. The AJR are now looking to develop specific services and areas of interest to appeal to both existing second generation members and also to attract new members. AJR have produced a survey to find out what the second generation are interested in. This link will take you to a version of the survey adapted for members of GSI so that we may compare the results with our colleagues in the UK: https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/GSI2G

Best Wishes for 2020,

Generations of the Shoah International (GSI)
