Dear Members and Friends,

GSI is growing and expanding. We are delighted to introduce the newest member of our Coordinating Council. Michelle Edgar is the Program Specialist for The Institute of Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Raritan Valley Community College in Branchburg, NJ. Additionally, Michelle is one of the founding members of 3GNJ, and she is active on their Steering Committee. Michelle is also a 3GNJ representative on the Board of 3GNY - Descendants of Holocaust Survivors, and she has been a volunteer docent for the Holocaust Memorial and Education Center at the Shimon and Sara Birnbaum Jewish Community Center. Michelle’s mother’s and father’s families had lived in Germany for generations. The impact that the Holocaust had on her family has been profound and has motivated Michelle in her career and volunteer work.

We have created an Advisory Group to help bring in new ideas for Holocaust remembrance, commemoration, and education. The GSI Advisory Group has members you already know from the Coordinating Council: Daniel Brooks, David Kader, Pepi Nichols and Barbara Wind. We also have two new additions. From Arizona we have Adena Astrowsky, the grandchild of two Holocaust survivors. Adena's grandmother often spoke to her about her experiences during the Holocaust, which had a profound impact on her life. Adena continues to honor her grandmother's life by speaking about her grandmother’s survival and lessons learned from the Holocaust. In her professional life she works in the Maricopa County Attorney’s Office.

Joining us from California is Sherry Bard, the daughter of a survivor who has been working in the field of Holocaust remembrance and education for more than 25 years. Currently Sherry works with Echoes & Reflections and also Chapman University’s Annual Holocaust Art & Writing Contest. For over 17 years she works with the USC Shoah Foundation and was a Project Director.

Best wishes for the Jewish New Year. If you feel well-served by GSI, please consider a donation to either a social service agency that helps Holocaust survivors in need or to the Shoah memorial / institution of your choice. Thank you.

Stay safe and be well,

Generations of the Shoah International (GSI)
Membership in our interactive leadership listserv is open to leaders / representatives of landsmanschaften and other Holocaust-related groups. If your local survivor, second generation or third generation group has not yet delegated a representative to join the GSI interactive online discussion / listserv group, please join us now. We already have dozens of members throughout the USA and from other countries. This global interactive listserv is the fastest way to reach the survivor community: genshoah@gmail.com.

For event submissions: www.genshoah.org/contact_gsi.html. Please fill out the information requested in the text areas and submit it to us at genshoah@gmail.com. You must send us your information no later than the 23rd of the month if you wish for it to appear in the upcoming month’s issue.

To search the newsletter by geographic area: Search by country for programs outside the USA or use the city and / or state abbreviations for those areas in the USA.

All times listed below are local unless otherwise stated.

Visit our GSI website at www.genshoah.org for updated information on new books, films, helpful links to Holocaust-related organizations and institutions, etc. Survivors, their children and grandchildren are welcome to post contact information for their local groups on our website.

GSI has an “open” Facebook group that anyone can join and invite others to join. Feel free to introduce yourself to your brothers and sisters in the survivor community and communicate directly with them without having to be cleared by a third party. Use the group to find old friends and relatives. Join us and meet new friends. Our page is visible to Facebook members at www.facebook.com/groups/genshoah/. Joining Facebook is free and easy: www.facebook.com.

FYI… The University of South Carolina (UofSC) is now home to a permanent exhibition and educational program in partnership with the Anne Frank House in Amsterdam, becoming one of only four partner sites in the world and the only one in North America.

The Anne Frank Center located in the Barringer House on the UofSC campus tells the story of the young Jewish girl who documented her family's two years of hiding in Nazi German-occupied Amsterdam during World War II. Visitors will receive timed-entry guided tours through the exhibit, which uses quotes, photos, videos and original artifacts to represent the experience of Anne’s family as they hid behind her father’s business. The center will also use its resources to support civic education through discussions and training around identity, hate and prejudice. Tours of the Anne Frank Center can be scheduled beginning Sept. 15 by contacting AFCUOFSC@sc.edu.
