

Generations of the Shoah International Newsletter April, 2015

Dear Members and Friends,

As we commemorate Yom Hashoah V'Hagvurah this month, let us remember there are still Holocaust survivors in need and memorials / museums who could use your help. If you feel well served by GSI, pass it forward by donating to the Jewish social service agency or Holocaust museum / memorial of your choice. There may be survivors in need in your local community but, if not, there are certainly those who could use your help elsewhere. Organizations such as the Blue Card Fund and the Survivor Mitzvah Project (and others) help survivors in the US and Europe (respectively). Please give generously. Thank you.

Many Yom HaShoah Holocaust Remembrance programs are listed below in the upcoming events section. You can search this document by state, or country if outside the US, to find the commemoration nearest you.

Registrations are coming in for the joint conference GSI is having with the Association of Holocaust Organizations (AHO). The theme of the conference is Media and the Holocaust. In light of all the current media trends, both good and bad, this is an interesting and timely topic. We have limited space and will accommodate people on a first come – first served basis for this unique conference that will give members of the survivor family community time to share ideas with representatives of some of the finest Holocaust institutions from around the world. Join us in Las Vegas June 13 – 16, 2015. For more information see the announcement section below. For registration information: www.genshoah.org/pdfs/2015\_gsi-aho\_registration\_packet.pdf.

Generations of the Shoah International (GSI)

Membership in our interactive leadership listserv is open to leaders / representatives of landsmanshaft and other Holocaust-related groups. If your local survivor, second generation or third generation group has not yet delegated a representative to join the GSI interactive online discussion / listserv group, please join us now. We already have dozens of members throughout the US and from other countries. This global interactive listserv is the fastest way to reach the survivor community: genshoah@gmail.com.

For event submissions: http://www.genshoah.org/contact\_gsi.html. Please fill out the information requested in the text areas and submit it to us at genshoah@gmail.com. You must send us your information no later than the 23rd of the month if you wish for it to appear in the upcoming month's issue.

To search the newsletter by geographic area: search by country for programs outside the USA or use the city and / or state abbreviations for those in the USA.

Visit our GSI website at www.genshoah.org for updated information on new books, films, helpful links to Holocaust-related organizations and institutions, etc. Survivors, their children and grandchildren are welcome to post contact information for their local groups on our website.

GSI has an “open” Facebook Group that anyone can join and invite others to join. Feel free to introduce yourself to your brothers and sisters in the survivor community and communicate directly with them without having to be cleared by a third party. Use the group to find old friends and relatives. Join us and meet new friends. Our page is visible to Facebook members at <http://tinyurl.com/clhxsf>. Joining Facebook is free and easy: www.facebook.com.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Generations of the Shoah International is joining with the Association of Holocaust Organizations (AHO) for a conference June 13 – 16, 2015 at the South Point Hotel in Las Vegas, NV. The theme of the conference is Media and the Holocaust and some of the topics and presenters include

- ☐ Media and the Holocaust, Michael Berenbaum, American Jewish University
- ☐ What do Young People Know and Understand about the Holocaust? Stuart Foster, University of London
- ☐ Media Manipulation of the Holocaust, Mark Weitzman, Simon Weisenthal Center
- ☐ Liberation 1945: What We Fought For- World War II Meaning and Legacy at the National WWII Museum, Gordon Mueller, National World War II Museum
- ☐ 30 Years Later: The Impact of (Claude Lanzmann's) 'Shoah', Annette Insdorf, Columbia University
- ☐ Leveraging Media for Formal and Informal Holocaust Education, Na'ama Shik, Yad Vashem
- ☐ Geeking Out: Social Media and Holocaust Education, Kori Street, USC Shoah Foundation Institute
- ☐ Holocaust Publishing: Fixation, Forgery and Forgetting, Amy Newman Smith, Jewish Review of Books

The sessions specifically designed for the intergenerational survivor community and currently scheduled include:

- Building Better Bridges: How Holocaust descendants can work more effectively with their local museums and memorials.
- Filling in the Missing Story: Finding your history through documentation research.
- The Future of Holocaust Education and Remembrance: What Holocaust descendants and descendants' groups are doing to prepare for and address this need.
- Speaker training for children and grandchildren of survivors.
- Holocaust Survivor Legacy: the second generation confronts its history.

This conference has limited seating so it will be first come, first served. No walk-in registrations allowed. The registration form is available: www.genshoah.org/pdfs/2015\_gsi-aho\_registration\_packet.pdf.

RESTITUTION

Information on the onetime payment for Child Survivors: This fund is open to Jewish Nazi victims who were persecuted as Jews and were born January 1, 1928 or later AND who suffered one of the following types of persecution:

- (I) Was in a concentration camp; or
- (II) Was in a ghetto (or similar place of incarceration in accordance with the German Slave Labor Program); or
- (III) Was in hiding or living under false identity for a period of at least 6 months in Nazi-occupied or Axis countries; or
- (IV) Was a fetus during time that their mother suffered persecution as described above.

The fund is intended to acknowledge the suffering of Holocaust survivors who endured unimaginable trauma in their childhoods, encompassing a range of experiences that included separation from parents, living in hiding with the terror of being caught, privation and abuse in ghettos and even the horrors of concentration camps, where very few children survived.

Applications must be submitted by survivors, not heirs. However, if an eligible survivor passes away after an application form is received and registered by the Claims Conference, the surviving spouse is entitled to payment. If there is no surviving spouse, the child(ren) of the eligible child survivor is entitled to the payment. Please consult the Claims Conference website for updates and for any questions:
