Dear Members and Friends,

May you be inscribed for a Happy, Healthy, Peaceful and Prosperous New Year (5783).

The GSI Coordinating Council is delighted to welcome Sharon Buenos as its newest member. Sharon heads the global Zikaron BaSalon (memory in the salon / living room) program out of Israel. This is an increasingly popular way to commemorate the Shoah. She is one of the grandchildren of survivors (3G) to join GSI’s leadership with an eye to moving Holocaust remembrance and education into the future. Please visit our website to “meet” the four generations on our international Coordinating Council: Coordinating Council (genshoah.org).

We also welcome the return of Dr. Steve Salzberg, an original member of the GSI Coordinating Council, to our extended “family.” He has joined our Advisory Group.

Congratulations to Tali Nates, founder and director of the Johannesburg Holocaust & Genocide Centre and chair of the South African Holocaust & Genocide Foundation, and a member of our Coordinating Council, on being one of the recipients of the Goethe Medal for 2022. Tali will also be our first guest as we launch into a year-long series of authors and filmmakers talking about their works and answering questions that we will host on the GSI book / film discussion group to mark our 20th anniversary.

The World Federation of Jewish Child Survivors of the Holocaust & Descendants (WFJCSHD) is happy to welcome the intergenerational survivor community to its first in-person conference since Covid. This international conference will be November 4 – 7 in St. Louis, Missouri. Please see the conference section below for more information.

Thank you, and be well,

Generations of the Shoah International (GSI)

FYI… The Holocaust Survivors and Victims Resource Center (HSVRC) at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum provides research services pertaining to individuals and other topics related to the Holocaust and Nazi persecution. Drawing on the Museum archives and other parts of its collection as well as the ITS (International Tracing Service) Digital Archive, the HSVRC answers thousands of victim and survivor-related research requests from the Second Generation, families of survivors and victims, scholarly and genealogical researchers, documentary filmmakers, teachers and other educators, and the general public.

Among the many requests we are able to provide information about are those from and about Jews born in Germany or Austria, or which concern Jews who had spent a significant amount of their lives in either of those two countries in the 1930s or 1940s. We are often able to help descendants who are seeking documentation related to their relatives who lived in or came from Germany or Austria in order to support applications for German or Austrian citizenship. If you are interested in having us conduct such research, please complete the online research request form available at the link below.

FYI… The Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center has a new online exhibit: The Holocaust in the Soviet Union.

FYI… On Auschwitz is the official podcast of the Auschwitz Memorial. The history of Auschwitz is exceptionally complex. It combined two functions: a concentration camp and an extermination center. Nazi Germany persecuted various groups of people there, and the camp complex continually expanded and transformed itself. In the podcast "On Auschwitz," we discuss the details of the history of the camp as well as our contemporary memory of this important and special place. Online lessons: lesson.auschwitz.org

FYI… The free nonfiction Holocaust theater project THIN EDGE OF THE WEDGE was developed to educate about the Holocaust and to combat antisemitism today. The play of first-hand testimonies of survivors and saviors can be read at https://b.link/ThinEdgeOfTheWedge and all accompanying educational resources are at www.ThinEdgeOfTheWedge.com (The play is also available in a professional German translation -- see www.SchritteInDenAbgrund.com) Playwright Phyllis Zimbler Miller spoke for a Liberation75 teachers training on using theater to create empathy for victims and rescuers -- https://b.link/CreatingeEmpathy -- and she is happy to do Zoom discussions about this theater project. She is also the co-host of the NEVER AGAIN IS NOW podcast on YouTube, Spotify, and Apple Podcasts -- www.millermosaicllc.com/podcast-never-again-is-now/

FYI…A multi-institutional research project is currently underway to gather, analyze, and publish photos of Nazi mass deportations of Jews, Romani people and people with disabilities from the German Reich between 1938 and 1945. The “#LastSeen - Pictures of Nazi Deportations” (https://lastseen.arolsen-archives.org/en/) project aims to recognize the victims in the photos and recover their stories. The team is looking for the unknown photos, the ones that survived in museums, archives, private attics, and basements. Anyone who is interested in assisting the project can help by searching for photographs and tracking down additional information about what the photos show. The findings will be presented on a website in German and English to make them accessible to a wide audience. If you have any questions or if you have found a potentially interesting photograph, please reach out to the team at the USC Center for Advanced Genocide Research (Los Angeles, California) at cagr@usc.edu. Sarah Ernst (Assistant and Ph.D. student, University of Southern California)
FYI… Theatrical runs of Three Minutes – A Lengthening have begun around the US. Summary: A snippet of a 16mm home movie found in an attic in South Florida, taken in the late 1930's, offers a meditative glimpse into the lives of the unsuspecting Jewish citizens of a small Polish village at the precipice of World War II. A list of American cities that will be showing the film in September appears below. For more: www.threeminutesfilm.com or contact tamar@meanstreetsmanagement.com.
