Dear Members and Friends,

Thank you Tali Nates for being our first guest in our 20th anniversary speaker series with our book / film discussion group. Our guest this month is Adena Bernstein Astrowsky, the grandchild of two Holocaust survivors. Her grandmother often spoke to her about her experiences during the Holocaust, which had a profound impact on her life. She continues to honor her grandmother's life by writing her story: Living among the Dead and by speaking about her grandmother’s survival and lessons learned from the Holocaust.

Adena has dedicated her career to helping the most vulnerable of our society. She did this by prosecuting child sexual abuse cases and domestic violence cases within the Maricopa County Attorney’s Office. Currently, she works with federal agencies to extradite fugitives from countries abroad. Adena is the Vice President of the Phoenix Holocaust Association and a founding member of 3GAZ, a third generation Holocaust descendant group.

Adena’s greatest role, however, is as the mother of three very active teenagers. Living among the Dead can be found online at all major bookstores. You can join our discussion group here: GSI book / film discussion group | Facebook.

Thank you, and be well,

Generations of the Shoah International (GSI)

Membership in our interactive leadership listserv is open to leaders / representatives of landsmanschaften and other Holocaust-related groups. If your local survivor, second generation or third generation group has not yet delegated a representative to join the GSI interactive online discussion / listserv group, please join us now. We already have dozens of members throughout the USA and in other countries. This global interactive listserv is the fastest way to reach the survivor and their descendants’ communities: genshoah@gmail.com.

The form for event submissions may be found at: www.genshoah.org/contact_gsi.html. Please fill out the information requested in the text areas and submit it to us at genshoah@gmail.com. You must send us your information no later than the 23rd of the month if you wish it to appear in the upcoming (next) month’s issue.

To search the newsletter by geographic area: Search by country for programs outside the USA or use the city and / or state abbreviations for those areas in the USA.

All times listed below are local unless otherwise stated.

Visit our GSI website at www.genshoah.org for updated information on new books, films, helpful links to Holocaust-related organizations and institutions, and more. Survivors, their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren are welcome to post contact information for their local groups on our website.

GSI has an “open” Facebook group that anyone can join and invite others to join. Feel free to introduce yourself to your brothers and sisters in the survivor and descendants’ community and communicate directly with them without having to be cleared by a third party. Use the Facebook group to find old friends and relatives. Join us and meet new friends. Our page is visible to Facebook members at www.facebook.com/groups/genshoah/. Joining Facebook is free and easy: www.facebook.com.

FYI… From the Wiener Library in the UK…In November the Library is hosting the latest events in our Recovery & Repair Programme, raising awareness of the International Tracing Service Digital Archive, and its application in both academic and family research. On 23 November we'll be hosted at Holocaust Centre North in Huddersfield, and on 24 and 25 November the team will be at Leeds Central Library.

This series of free events offers the chance to view our temporary exhibition Fate Unknown: The Search for the Missing after the Holocaust as well as the opportunity to hear from its curators and ITS Digital Archive researchers to learn more about this remarkable collection.

FYI… Holocaust Museum LA is partnering with the International March of the Living to send one of the first delegations designed for 2Gs and their families to Poland and Israel next spring. For those unfamiliar with the March of the Living, the trip is essentially a week in Poland, followed by a few days in Israel. During the time in Poland, you will join 10,000 people from many countries as you march three kilometers from Auschwitz to Birkenau on Yom HaShoah. You will also spend Yom Ha'atzmaut, Israel's memorable 75th birthday, in Israel.

You can learn more about the program by clicking on frequently asked questions. The program will begin in Krakow on Monday, April 17th and end in Warsaw on Sunday, April 23rd. For those who are interested in continuing on to Israel, departure to Israel will take place on Sunday, April 23rd and will conclude in Jerusalem on Wednesday, April 26th. As torchbearers, we will remember those who perished and honor the legacy of those who survived.

Application Link: https://www.motl.org/apply/hmla/. If you have any questions, please contact Michael Morgenstern at Holocaust Museum Los Angeles at michael@hmla.org

FYI… The Museum of Jewish Heritage will conduct a year-long series of roundtable classes focused on special topics raised in the Museum’s new exhibition, The Holocaust: What Hate Can Do. Each class will be moderated by Professor Judy Tydor Baumel-Schwartz, scholar at Bar-Ilan University and member of the exhibition’s curatorial team and will feature a rotating roster of scholars and experts.

This class meets every other month on Mondays from 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM. Register for classes individually or purchase the full series as a bundle. Registrants will receive a recommended reading list before each class.

Museum Members: $18 per class or $96 for the full class series
Nonmembers: $36 per class or $198 for the full class

FYI… From The Museum of Jewish Heritage: Why We Remember: The Concept of Postmemory with Dr. Marianne Hirsch, a three-session course exploring the concept of “postmemory,” starting Monday, January 9, 2023 and meeting weekly on Mondays from 6 to 7:30 PM ET. Fees. Postmemory is the powerful relationship the descendant generations have to the personal, collective, and cultural trauma of survivors of the Holocaust and other violent histories.

Class schedule
Monday, January 9: What is Postmemory?
Monday, January 16: How has Postmemory Shaped the Private and Public Memory of the Holocaust and Other Catastrophic Histories?

Monday, January 23: The Arts of Postmemory: A Conversation with Postmemorial Artist Mirta Kupferminc

FYI… The Haberman Institute is offering a 6-week class Justice or Vengeance in Post-Holocaust Jewish Cinema. Fees.

FYI… Messages From Survivors is a new traveling exhibit by The Memory Project Productions. Six short videos illuminate the Holocaust experiences of a couple who met in a forced labor camp. Forty years of recordings show four generations of a survivor’s family sharing history, life challenges and celebrations. Six scalable informational panels put their experiences into historical context. It’s a short, concise view of the Holocaust with emotionally impactful messages from survivors told using testimony, art, and photos.

Preview the exhibit and films here through November 30, 2022. For information about licensing the exhibit or videos for use, contact, Laurie Weisman, info@memoryprojectproductions.com https://memoryprojectproductions.com/messages-from-survivors-pr

Replicas of precious family photos and stories are available as handouts. They contain poignant messages and thought-provoking questions as well as links to the videos.

The Memory Project Productions is a non-profit organization devoted to combating antisemitism and bigotry through art and remembrance.
